January 24, 2012 Program

by Paul B. Ward

SPEAKER SUMMARY: Tarek Nahabet, introduced by Lois Wilson, spoke on the leadership lessons to be learned from John Maxwell's new book, "The Twenty-one Irrefutable Laws of Leadership." Among them were that leadership development is an intentional and continuous process, and properly is based on sincerely caring for those we seek to lead and help.

Bob Hahne	Stop Hunger Now is coming again on September 10. Be ready to sign up.
Dana Sippel George Sachs	The Chocolate Festival is generating good buzz around the community. There are 15 vendors signed up. Volunteers are still needed for children's games, parking and water sale.
Vance Zavela	Vance introduced Bonnie O'Neill of Share, Inc., who told us that the tremendous growth of those being helped by Share has meant the food supplies available at the McLean Baptist Church storage site are not keeping up. There will be someone at church site every Wednesday and Saturday afternoon from 4:30 to 6:00 to accept donations. Vance also mentioned that Giant Food Store has set a target of 8000 pounds of food to load up the food bus. Vance mentioned that the Safe Community Coalition is holding a series of 6th Grade Ethics Days during the month of February. McLean Rotarians are needed to serve as table leaders. The dates and schools involved are: Thursday, February 16 - Colvin Run, Great Falls, and The Langley School Wednesday, February 22 - Forestville and Spring Hill Thursday, February 23 - Chesterbrook and Churchill Road Wednesday, February 29 - Franklin Sherman, Kent Gardens and Timber Lane All sessions are being hosted by Temple Rodef Shalom in Falls Church. The time commitment involved is from 9:00 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. for each day. Contact Vance to volunteer.

Todd Dempsey	Todd announced that the McLean Rotary Foundation Board will meet February 7, and the meeting is open to any who wish to attend.

CONGRATULATIONS to our club. What a great idea! I quote Dr. Jackson, "I've always heard that when you have an idea that matches what the community needs and wants, it can be nothing but a success. We were successful in getting the word out and the people came...and boy did they come!"
