Announcement

by Paul Sawtell

Ylonen Trophy is being challenged with regards to per capital giving; we have held the trophy for 3 years. Heather Schoeppe thanked Bob Hahne, Mike Holleran and Dominic Alexander for helping at Alternative House. Kathy Martin reminded champions of worthy organizations to turn in applications for donating funds. She also thanked the Timberlane School readers for a successful year.

Happy Talk

by Paul Sawtell

Jan Auerbach spent the weekend sailing on the Bay, is headed to Philadelphia and Cape May and returning to hear her son, a teacher at TJ, speak at their commencement.
Vance Zavela's daughter beat Bob Koenig's granddaughter's tea and are in the semi-finals for the championship in girls' softball.
Tehmina Khan returned from overseas and is happy her son got a promotion at work.
Dana Sippel's son slept through the final, but graduated anyway.
Mike DeRose reminded us that Langley's Lacrosse team won its fourth championship.
Nick Kalis' son graduated from Drexel and has a job, too.
Pamela Danner just returned from Spain after 10 days there.
Dale Lazar spent the weekend at Cornell Law School for his 35th reunion.
Tom Mangan was at his grandson's Little League Tournament.
