March 20, 2012 Program by Jan Auerbach

Jan Auerbach spoke about her recent trip to India to participate in National Inoculation Day. She reported on a number of projects she visited there that Indian Rotary clubs are funding.

Announcement by Jan Auerbach

- Dale Lazar noted the McLean club has a 93% attendance record, which is the highest in the district
- Jan Auerbach introduced Nicole Zaccack, President of the Interact Club at Langley High School, and thanked her for her help managing the children's game room at the Chocolate Festival. Dana Sippel introduced Maggie Shea, Program Director at the McLean Community Center, and thanked her for her help planning and implementing the Chocolate Festival. Each was presented with a chocolate Rotary medallion as a token of our appreciation.
- Ed Shahin passed around a signup sheet to read to children at Timber Lane Elementary School on March 28
- John Huling announced two upcoming McLean Orchestra concerts this weekend and their annual fundraising event this spring
- Bob Hahne said he was wearing his Stop Hunger Now pin when he went to the grocery store last week. The cashier asked him what the pin was for. When Bob told him, the cashier replied, "I am from Nigeria. Thank you." Bob also recognized Doug Megill and Cherry Baumbusch as Paul Harris +4 donors.

Raffle

Stan Richards won the pot.

- Dale Lazar said his daughter is back from two weeks in Guatemala. She worked one week at a senior center

The second week she helping fit young people for customized wheelchairs.

- Heather Schoeppe thanked Marilen King and Dominic Alexander for accompanying her to Alternative House last week.
- Doug Megill was happy to win his bet with Guru Raj that Florida would beat UVA in the NCAA tournament.
- Mike Holleran reported that he drove his sons to Columbus so that one of them could work the Georgetown NCAA basketball game
- Bob Hahne was unhappy that Missouri lost in the tournament since he had them winning the championship
- Lynn Heinrichs said she loves Bob Hahne's pink tie and Ralf Berthiez' pink socks
- Richard Golden is happy that one of our newest members, Nancy Fisher, is here
- Tom Mangan is happy that he was able to go fishing with his grandson yesterday; he is also happy that the grandson is graduating from college this year
- Dana Sippel announced that we have secured McLean High School as the venue for the chocolate festival next year ; he is happy that his daughter is home on spring break and his son has already been accepted at a couple of colleges
- Nancy Fisher is happy that the daughter of a friend of hers got into West Point
- Ed Holman is back after playing with Shamu and The Mouse last week in Orlando. Next week he leaves on the cruise he won two years ago on Monte Carlo Night.
- Bob Rosenbaum remarked that Tracee Hamilton, columnist for the Washington Post, has missed 25 games in the NCAA bracket, whereas he has only missed 18. He said that Mike Holleran brought fruit from the American Legion and then made a Rotary donation. Bob had a physical exam a couple of weeks ago and his doctor told him it would be OK to make long term investments. He said everyone should get a tetanus shot every ten years and they are available at the Safeway on Anderson Road.
