Rotary Cup

by Richard Neldon

Mike Holleran MC'ed the days program welcoming the principles, coaches, and captains of the McLean and Langley High School football teams. They are playing their annual game at McLean High School this Friday night for the Rotary Cup Trophy. (FYI< McLean won the game 21 to 0). Mike interviewed each of the student athletes present. Each of the young men made a very positive impression and represented their schools well. It was also noted that Jim Patrick, the McLean head coach, was just named the New Director of Student Activities at McLean High School. This will be his last year as head coach.

Guess the Rotarian

Happy Talk

by Richard Neldon

Congratulations to Brian Pence--he and his wife are expecting their third child.

Tom Mangan went hiking in the mountains last week and took many photographs.

Cherry Baumbaush had a show of her art work this past weekend.

Doug Magill was off to Homecoming at the University of Florida this past weekend. He also had the opportunity to meet with members of the British Parliament on Tuesday morning.

Lois Wilson was happy that McLean and Langley high schools played volleyball last week. She is even happier that her daughter is the assistant coach of the Langley team.

Marilyn King was happy that the Chesterbrook Residences is celebrating its 4th anniversary of operation.

Robert Nath was in New York for his 45th high school reunion. Turns out the Miami Dolphins football team was staying in his hotel. He said, they were really big guys!

Mike DeRose reminded everyone that the next opportunity to donate blood will be after next Tuesday's meeting.
