Program - February 19 by Pamela Danner

Katherine Mackey, our newest member, gave her classification talk. She is also currently Rotary District Foundation Chair. Katherine has called Great Falls home for the past 21 years. She has worked as an actress, working with the shows "Sex in the City" and "The Sopranos." She also lived in South Carolina for awhile. She has her own event business, Soiree by the Falls, and recently started a network for entrepreneurs, www.virginianetwork.com. She told us about her involvement with Rotary, which started with her selection as an Ambassadorial Scholar sponsored by the Research Triangle Park, N.C. Rotary Club. Prior to her ambassadorial year, she was sent to Switzerland to speak to clubs and also went to Spain to study Spanish and spoke to Rotary Clubs while there. She spent her Ambassadorial Scholarship year in Mexico City and then was asked to work for Rotary International on a project building latrines in La Union, Mexico. She is very grateful for all her varied Rotary experiences.
