Program – January 8

by Robert Nath

President Jan gave the Club a mid-year report.

Funding: 5 projects already funded, for $10,000. Six more projects are awaiting Club funds. We will have another round of voting after the Chocolate Festival.

Service Project Fundraising: Monte Carlo raised an impressive $9200, gift cards $500, and Happy Talk $700.

Service Project Volunteer Efforts: We have helped 7 projects including ethics days, Alternative House and others. Several more service projects are upcoming, including McLean Day in May.

Fellowship: Evo Bistro, parties and gift exchanges continue to be successful.

Membership: We have 62 active including 4 new members. Three left the Club; three more are on leave of absence. Dues will remain at $44. Meals are also under control, with new varieties on the menus.

Special thanks: to numerous named Club members for all efforts. President Jan emphasized that the Club has extremely enthusiastic participants who give large amounts of time on our projects.

Announcements – January 8

by Robert Nath

- President Jan inducted a new member, Katherine Mackey. Welcome, Katherine.
- Dana Sippel updated us on the Chocolate Festival, Jan. 27. Expected net is $16,000. 25 vendors are signed up. We expect 4-5,000 people, our "signature" event and fundraiser. Ads will go in local papers, the Post, and elsewhere. Please put up your yard signs and rack cards. Dana still needs people to volunteer before, during and after the Festival, for 2-3 hours each.
- Assistant District Governor Bettina Lawton was pleased to be our guest.
- Vance Zavala reminded all of the 6th Grade Ethics Days beginning January 21 for the Safe Community Coalition. He needs volunteers for Ethics Day. On March 16, we will sponsor tickets for the Wizards game to assist End Polio Now. There is a July 27 Nationals game as well and finally Girl Scout cookies are on sale.

Visiting Rotarians

Assistant District Governor Bettina Lawton
