Program – May 28 by Dominic Alexander

Dranesville District Supervisor John Foust updated the club regarding the ongoing McLean Revitalization Project (including Main St. redevelopment), park projects (incl. McLean Central Park), additions of bike lanes/racks/signs, bus/rail openings, and expansion of the McLean Government Center. The McLean Government Center will expand by 17,000 square feet to accommodate the space-squeezed police. Plans are also in order to add a 12,000 square foot gymnasium and 15,000 square foot fitness center at Spring Hill Recreation Center.

Various projects are ongoing to help aging/disabled citizens in McLean, including “Senior Source.” Senior Source volunteers can help aging citizens with referrals, transport, etc., on Tues., Wed., and Thurs. at the McLean Community Center.
