Program – March 19 by Rick Neldon

Our program last week was the wonderfully entertaining Ukulele Phil and the Hula Kids (his son and daughter). Ukulele Phil (Disera) began by telling us the history of the Ukulele, explaining how it came to Hawaii in the late 1800’s from Portugal. Throughout the program he played three different kinds of Ukuleles and demonstrated the wide variety of music types suitable to this instrument. Phil and the Kids sang several Hawaiian songs and daughter Julia demonstrated the Hula. The highlight of the performance was when President Jan Auerbach, Lynn Heinrichs, and Pamela Danner joined Julia on the Hula line. This may have been one of the more memorable moments in club history. Unfortunately, no video cameras were available to capture this stunning moment for YouTube posterity. We were pleased to have Ukulele Phil and the Hula Kids visit our club. It was an afternoon of just plain fun!
