Program - October 9

by Rick Neldon

McLean Rotarians Bob Hahne and Dominic Alexander brought us up to date on the upcoming Stop Hunger Now event to be held on Saturday, November 10, 2012, at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer. Stop Hunger Now is working to raise $62,500 to prepare 250,000 meals. They need 900 volunteers to work two-hour shifts to package the meals. In addition, they are asking that all volunteers bring non-perishable canned goods to the event to help our local food bank, SHARE, fill the needs of the hungry in our own community. The time is 8:30 am to 3:30 pm. Take the time and get involved!

- Vance Zavela reminded us that the McLean ArtFest is this coming weekend at the McLean Community Center, and Central Park. He needs volunteers to help. Please contact him if you can help out. Vance is also selling tickets to Monte Carlo Night. Tickets are $75.00 each. Even if you can't come, purchase a ticket to share with someone else. Vance is also selling Monte Carlo Night Sponsorships.
- Vance Zavela also talked about the upcoming Non-Profit Forum on October 30, 8:00 am to 3:00 pm, being held at Gannett headquarters here in McLean. For Chamber of Commerce members the cost is only $25.00.

- Marilen King is just back from a fantastic trip to Europe. She enjoyed her trip from Monte Carlo to Paris, especially the wonderful restaurants and food.
- Cherry Baumbusch is excited that her art exhibit will be opening in Alexandria this weekend.
- Today, October 9, is Rick Neldon's 30th wedding anniversary. He was happy for 30 years with his wonderful wife Harriet and will be taking her out to dinner tonight. Also, his son will be home from Clemson University this weekend. They will all be going to Giants' Stadium in New Jersey to watch youngest daughter Alice march with the McLean High School Band in competition with other bands on Saturday night.
- Tom Mangan is showing his photographs.
- Matt Howard spent a long weekend in Portugal.
- Bob Hahne is still a Cardinals fan, but is learning to enjoy the Nationals.
- Dana Sippel recently celebrated his 25th wedding anniversary by taking a cruise out of Baltimore to the Bahamas.
- Bill Reed's second grandson used his R&R from Afghanistan to get married.
- Dr. Mike DeRose told us that the date for the next Blood Drive had to be shifted to Thursday, October 18 and hoped that many could join in giving much needed blood.
- Bob Rosenbaum had a great time in Atlantic City with his adopted brother from Roanoke. He also gave us up to date information about McLean Rotarian Ed Shahin who is battling prostate cancer. Ed is having a tough fight but remains very upbeat and hopeful.
- Vance Zavela had a ticket for the Nats game tonight for the first person who asked.
- Chet Gray is still involved with the Solomans Island Yacht Club.
- Lois Wilson loves to watch her daughter play volleyball in the Mid-Atlantic Conference. Last week, she was named Offensive Player of the Week.

50/50 Raffle:

Vance Zavela was the winner of the $18.00 small pot. For the large pot, Vance did not pull the Joker out of the deck, so the $52.00 waits for a winner next week.
