Program - October 16

by Pamela Danner

Dong Xiang was introduced by Angela Lee and spoke on the difference between Western Culture and Traditional Chinese Culture and how the upcoming Shen Yun Performance from Jan. 29 – Feb. 3 at the Kennedy Center will be an excellent way to understand Traditional or Classical Chinese Culture. He used Western and Chinese painting and the movies, Mulan, and Kung Fu Panda, as ways to explain these differences. He said that the essence of Chinese Culture is divinely inspired, cultivation based and based on self-discipline.

Announcements

- John McEvilly and his wife, Brenda, celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary on Sunday.
- Lynn Heinrichs attended McLean Artfest on Sunday and said it was a wonderful event.
- Dominic Alexander informed us that today is World Food Day.
- Not to be outdone, Pamela Danner announced that she and her husband David celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary on Sept. 30th.
- Michael Holleran went to William and Mary to visit his son Keith, who is on their Cross Country Team.
- Chet Gray announced that Bob Hahne's photo was in a local newspaper but he was not wearing his Rotary pin.
- Brian Pence and his wife Leigh celebrated their 9th wedding anniversary by taking the whole family to Disney World.
- Obie O'Bryon had a wonderful weekend in NYC.
- Bob Hahne is sorry about not wearing his Rotary pin for the photo shoot.
- Butch McGonegal went to his company's trade association meeting where his company, United Air, won the national award.
- Doug Megill is very happy that the U. of Florida is ranked No. 2 in football.
- Bill Reed is very happy that his son is coming home from Yemen where he was awarded a silver plated dagger for his excellent services. He is also proud to announce that his grandson's wife had a baby that makes him a great grandfather.
- Marilen King is just back from a fantastic trip to Europe. She enjoyed her trip from Monte Carlo to Paris, especially the wonderful restaurants and food.
