Nancy Perry, Executive Director of McLean Project for the Arts (MPA), spoke to the club about MPA's involvement in the McLean community. Founded 50 years ago by 6 women artists, the mission of McLean Project for the Arts is to exhibit the work of emerging and established artists from the mid-Atlantic region; to promote public awareness and understanding of the concepts of contemporary art; and to offer instruction and education in the visual arts. In addition to its program of high quality, professionally-curated art exhibitions, MPA presents special traveling exhibitions from the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. MPA offers art classes for children, adults, and seniors taught by professional art instructors. MPA also presents the Art Reach program for area schools, gallery talks, and day trips to area museums and galleries.

Announcements

by Dominic Alexander

- Jan Auerbach mentioned 2 things that made her happy she's a part of Rotary: 1) Someone from the club anonymously grabbed a Club Cookbook for her to give to Carole Herrick after her talk on 8/21/12, and 2) Anne Vandemark realized that Jan forgot to ask someone to say the 4-Way Test at the end of the meeting. Since Jan had initiated saying the 4-Way Test this year, she was happy someone else cared that it be included in the program.
- Heather Schoepp reminded everyone of the potluck at President Jan's on 9/23/12 from 4-7pm.
- Vance Zavala reminded everyone about Monte Carlo Night on 11/2/12 from 6:30-10:30pm, and gave out sponsorship forms.
- Glenn Yarborough added that Monte Carlo Night is the club's biggest fundraiser of the year, so let's try to raise at least $15,000 to help out President Jan and the club

Guests

Nicole Murphy, guest of Lynn Heinrichs
James Howard, guest of Matt Howard
Sam Signori, guest of Matt Howard
Eva Sereghy, guest of President Jan Auerbach

50/50 Raffle:

Visiting Rotarian Jackie Armstrong won the small pot of $28. Congratulations!!!

Happy Talk

by Dominic Alexander

- Lynn Heinrichs participated in a dance flash mob in Arlington with the Miss Virginia Senior.
- Nicole Murphy was happy to be visiting our club.
- Vance Zavala was happy his daughter Diana will be having her Bat Mitzvah on Saturday.
- Michael De Rose was thankful to everyone who gave blood after last week's meeting.
- Nick Kalis was happy he has two daughters in college now.
- Bob Rosenbaum went to Lake Champlain, VT, and is happy that Jon's bride Darcy is now a part of the family. He also mentioned Jon played golf the morning of the wedding, and shot a 75, cool as a cucumber.
- Bob Hahne mentioned Bob Koenig's displeasure with frivolous lawsuits brought against Little League baseball by families whose children get hurt because baseballs travel faster off a metal bat instead of a wooden bat.
- Eva Sereghy was happy her daughter is employed, and recently moved to Brooklyn for work.
- Dana Sippel was happy there is already $825 from vendors for the Chocolate Fest.
- Not to be one-upped, Vance Zavala was happy there is already $1,000 for Monte Carlo Night.
