Program - April 22, 2014

Shannon Owens gave her classification talk. Shannon was born in New Orleans; but then grew up in York, PA because both of her parents died when she was only 10 years old. She and her brother were then raised by her aunt and uncle. She received a B.A. degree from Bucknell University majoring in psychology. She became involved in fitness with Tae Bo because she bought videos when she went to help her aunt after her uncle died. She was then asked to be in Tae Bo videos and became certified in July 2000 to teach Tae Bo. She still teaches many classes. She has a 9 year old son and a 15 year old daughter. When her son was born, she decided to look for a job in banking and started at Wachovia becoming a manager in a year. When Wachovia merged with Wells Fargo, she went to Cardinal Bank because she likes community banking. She likes helping people and building a team. She says, "Everyone should know their banker." She first became a Rotarian with the Arlington Club. They made her a Paul Harris Fellow when they found out she was leaving their club and transferring to our club.
