Dominic Alexander: The Kite Runner by Khaled Hosseini

Dana Sippel: Trip to Antigua, have fun, Dana!

Lynn Heinrichs introduced the speaker, Visiting Rotarian Emir Arslanagic

Thank you for stepping in to speak today, Emir. Emir has an MS in Telecommunications from the University of Maryland and 19 years of professional experience focusing on Network & Security Engineering and Architecture. His ability to quickly comprehend the functions and capabilities of emerging technologies, and plan and facilitate testing, deployment and support has taken him around the globe.

After escaping the Siege of Sarajevo in the fall of 1994, Emir began his career in Vienna VA, in 1995.

Emir: Cyberspace is not just a network of interconnected computer devices, it is also the stored "valuables" of human beings. Sony's vulnerability, in terms of valuables, has created new era of how cyber security is to be approached. Questions to consider? Why do entities invest in Cyber Security? How do we protect our valuables versus just the hardware software? What are the items we need to protect? What are methods of protection? security are we willing to sacrifice for convenience? Advice to kids: don't create a trail you will need to "clean up" later. Once something is out in cyber space it is difficult to get it assuredly.

Announcements - January 20, 2015

Upcoming January 27 speaker Dr. Armand Weiss, to be introduced by Bob Rosenbaum:

In 1980, Dr. Armand Weiss was recruited by the FBI to become a "double agent" for the U.S. and USSR. For three years, Armand did undercover work, resulting in the expulsion from the U.S. of a Soviet diplomat. The story made front page headlines throughout the U.S. and was a principal subject of the national best-selling book, "Spy vs. Spy". So please plan to be present to hear Armand share this as well as other interesting stories.

Vance Zavela: McLean Stuff the Bus and Share take place this weekend at the Giant. Vance also presented $300 in Giant Gift Cards to Guest Bonnie O'Neill who then spoke in thanks of ongoing support to Share and the community from Rotary.

Bob Rosenbaum: Pete Hilgartner, a long-time Rotarian and Marine Colonel and a great person, has passed away at 87. Please look for more information in the upcoming email.

John McEvilly: There will be a Foundation Board meeting after the club meeting today. Results of the discussion of community grant awards for this round will be related in an upcoming email.

Also, the Chocolate Festival is well-sponsored this year. We need to deliver the wall sign banners to the Community Center by Friday.

Dana Sippel: We have Chocolate Festival yard signs left to place around the town. Pick them up if you like after the meeting today.

Dale Lazar: There are Volunteer Slots left to be filled for the Chocolate Festival. Sign up yourself or sign up a friend or family member; really anyone!

Jan Auerbach: There is great turnout from the club in preparation for the Chocolate Festival. Thank you for yard sign placements. The Festival will be featured in an article coming up in the McLean Connection. Jan will be managing personnel at the festival.

Carol Stone: Thank you everyone for your contributions to the Chocolate Festival Raffle Table this year. There are four fantastic items to raffle on Sunday: two donated baskets of yummy chocolate items, the club's chocolate-themed basket, and the beautiful double stranded chocolate pearl necklace.

Mike DeRose: We may need another driver for Stuff the Bus on Saturday

Happy Talk - January 20, 2015

Bob Hahne: is happy to see Dominic Alexander is back. Bob is gearing up for preparation for the next Stop Hunger Now event.

Dominic Alexander: enjoyed his vacation visiting family members in Thailand and then with his girlfriend. Also, happy to be back!

John Rosenbaum: is happy his wife was turned away at customs to go to Mexico because her passport had water damage. Why? The problem was resolved and she got to Mexico. But then her plans got disrupted and he needed to meet up with her there at the last minute. They had a wonderful time. Also, over the weekend John stopped by parents' house, found vinyl records and enjoyed listening to them on his phonograph including an unlabeled recording of his dad, Bob Rosenbaum, playing the piano in 1960s.

Kathy Martin: Happy to be back from a trip to Belize for a week for a "Surprise Adventure" package vacation. She rappelled the largest waterfall in South America.

Jan Auerbach: Happy that the Vincent Hall booth will be providing milk for the Chocolate Festival.

Lois Wilson: Lois' dental practice is sponsoring the Chocolate Festival and is happy to be passing out tooth brushes.

Lynn Heinrichs received her Rotary themed Fibonacci Series scarf and hat for winning the Gift Card hand-made scarf raffle in December. Lynn seemed very happy with the scarf and looks fabulous in it. This made Carol Stone very happy, too.

Dale Lazar: Phew. Dale was happy that he went to Vermont to visit his daughter for wedding planning and shopping, but she was in a slippery Vermont car accident, which totaled her car. We are all happy indeed that she is fine but for a bruise from her seat belt. Under the circumstances, Dale and family went car shopping instead of wedding shopping. They did also try out a meal for the upcoming wedding. Though the food seemed great, Dale was subsequently quite ill. Soooo, maybe not that caterer?

Doug Megill: Happy to be honoring Pete Hilgartner and noted that he was a person of greatness who, for example, dated Miss Jacqueline Bouvier, before she met John Kennedy.

Obie O'Bryon: Was happy to be relating exciting times with his family and honoring the memory of Pete Hilgartner.

Ed Holman: Sarah and Pete Hilgartner were good friends; Ed and Pete went goose hunting on Lake Anna together. Their friends and families would congregate there every September

Bob Rosenbaum: Thank you to those who are taking part in the football pool.

Paul Ward: Pete Hilgartner was responsible for the beautiful memorial in Great Falls.

Eva Sereghy: is happy to be having lunch with Bonnie from Share and also to have celebrated Eva's birthday (and feel healthy once again) on Friday. She is also happy to be part of this year's Chocolate Festival committee and congratulated Jan Auerbach who has done a fabulous job as the Committee Chair. Happy Birthday, Eva!

Vance Zavela: Michael Young is now working for Dodgers Baseball and gave Vance two tickets for opening day at Dodgers Stadium. Vance is taking his mom to see the game!
