SERVE TO CHANGE LIVES

December 6, 2021 Weekly Bulletin

Governor Hugh's Weekly Message

As we approach the end of the calendar year each of us takes a look at our financial giving for the year. As you do that, please give consideration to making sure the Rotary Foundation is on that list. A gift to the Annual Fund – Share is giving forward to future district grants as well as global grants. You can do this easily – just click here to link to the foundation.

This week is my open office hours for club Presidents, leaders & any members that want to join in. I will have two sessions – Tuesday Dec 7 at 5 pm & Friday Dec 10 at noon. The zoom link is on the district website Rotary7630.org.

Please remember RYLA registration – sign up is moving along. We have openings for more students. I hope every club and members are working to get students selected and registered. The RYLA weekend is so important to our high school leaders and future community leaders.

Lastly, please consider joining us at the Rotary International Conference June 4-8, 2022 in Houston. See the information below.

ROTARY WORK DAY PROJECT

Easter Seals Chair Robert Smith would like to thank everyone who came out to help with the Work Day Project at Camp Fairlee in Chestertown.

These are "Before and After" pictures of the Ramp, Flower Bed and Shed!

(Ramp was moved to a better location on the platform)

(Flower Beds were cleaned out for the winter)

(Wall was put up as an addition to the shed for better storage)

Look for more information about a Work Weekend at Camp Fairlee coming next year in April!

DOVER COLONIAL ROTARY

Thanks to Ceil Jones for securing John Yeomans from the Department of Homeland Security as our guest speaker on November 19th. Agent Tom Mason joined him to operate the DUI/Distracted Driver simulator.

The guest speaker this week is Mary Beth Parker for Hope Medical Dental Clinic!

DRUMROLL PLEASE! Welcome Back Rotarian Robert Ware and Roving Rotarian Don Brown!

President Jean Dowding also wants to remind the members of Dover Colonial about Salvation Army Bell Ringing - 12/6 thru 12/10

Michael Malkiewicz leads this event each year.

Dover Colonial Rotary Club has the bell-ringing time slot from Monday through Friday Dec. 6th through Dec. 10th from 6 PM to 8 PM at Redners on RT. 8.

*This year there are only 10 one-hour slots for the week.

The Salvation Army is ending the bell ringing at 8 pm this year.

Mike Malkiewicz asked that you contact him at (302)270-8300 if you volunteered.

He wants to and insure your time slot is correct.

ROTARIANS ARE ENTREPRENEURS, TOO!

Dover Colonial Rotarians, Ceil Jones, Paul Jones, Jean Dowding, William Hare and John Moore joined other Central Delaware Chamber of Commerce business owners at the Dover Air Force Base Landings Club for the Annual CDCC Military Affairs Committee's State of the Base Briefing. The inspiring State of the Base Briefing was delivered through the many "EYES" of Team Dover. Dover Air Force Base Commanders, Team Dover's Abilene Award-Winning Leadership, CDCC Partners and Delawares' Congressional Delegation (Senator Carper, Senator Coons and Congresswoman Lisa Blunt Rochester) showcased the value-creation proposition this watershed moment demands. They shared how Diversity and Inclusion are our greatest force-multipliers when we take tactical expertise and move it to strategic operations; infrastructure projects and leverage resources for moving forward together.

The nomination form can be obtained HERE.

The deadline for nominations is December 31, 2021. Rotary members are not eligible.
