

Constitution of the Rotary Club of Cambridge, Maryland, U.S.A.

Article 6 Membership

Section 2 – Kinds. This club shall have two kinds of membership, namely: active and honorary.

Section 3 – Active Membership. ~~A person possessing the qualifications set forth in article 5, section 2 of the RI constitution may be elected to active membership in this club.~~

- (a) Individual.* A person possessing the qualifications set forth in article 5, section 2 of the RI constitution may be elected to active membership in this club.
- (b) Corporate.* A corporate entity or organization may enjoy membership in the Cambridge Rotary Club subject to meeting the current requirements for individual active membership. Corporate membership consists of at least one management individual and up to three employees within the same organization. A Senior Officer (the Chairman, CEO, President, COO or General Manager) becomes an Executive Member; attending as their schedule permits. The Executive will designate a pool of up to three people from their organization. From this pool one individual may attend the regular meetings on behalf of the Executive Member.

Cambridge Rotary Club

Bylaws

Article 13 Method of Electing Members

Section 8 - A corporate entity or organization may enjoy membership in the Cambridge Rotary Club subject to meeting the current requirements for individual active membership. Corporate Membership consists of at least one management individual and up to three employees within the same organization. A Senior Officer (the Chairman, CEO, President, COO or General Manager) becomes an Executive Member; attending as their schedule permits and pays dues / meal charges with regular participation in the Club's business and activities.

Nomination, election and induction of Corporate Members shall be as described above for individual active members.

(a) Understanding demands on Executive's schedule thereby impacting their ability to meet attendance requirements the Executive Member may select up to three alternates, one of whom would attend in the absence of the Executive Member, to meet attendance requirements. These alternates will be called Designees.

(b) All Designees shall be full time employees of the organization.

(c) The Executive Member will notify the club secretary of changes in these designees.