

ncbce.org

NCBCE

The North Carolina Business Committee for Education (NCBCE) is an education nonprofit housed in the Office of the Governor. Our Board of Directors is comprised of business leaders from across the state.

NCBCE programs make the critical connection between NC employers and the education systems through work-based learning. Work-based learning directly addresses NC's growing need for skilled workers by providing students with real world experiences and improving student learning by providing relevancy to the curriculum.

Programs and Support for Educators

Governor's Educator Discovery Award

Empowering STEM:

VERSION 3.0 COMING SOON!

Join the Navigator:

943 Resources

435 Businesses

77,587 Educators

3,361 from Durham

Programs and Support for Students

• 2021 weeks of focus:

March 1-5, 2021: Education, Healthcare and Public Service

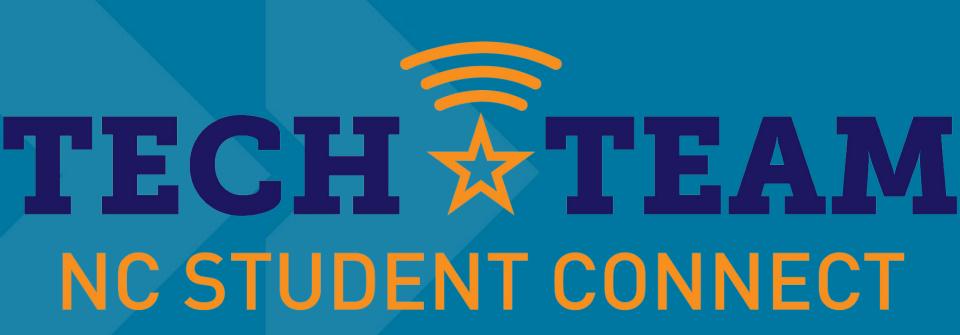

March 8-12, 2021: Small Business and Entrepreneurship

March 15-19, 2021: STEM

March 22-26, 2021: Hospitality, Tourism and Retail

- Over 18,000 students participating
- Nearly 200 businesses represented

- Since LiNC-IT's launch in 2018, 58 interns have been placed in internships (14 are in active internships and 31 have successfully transitioning to full time employment).
- Participating Employers: Alamance Comm College, Bank of America, Biogen, Credit Suisse, Fidelity, Lenovo, NCBCE, NC Dept Of Admin, NC DIT, Participate, PassionIT Group, SAS, Techinica Editorial, UNC Genetics, UNC Healthcare, and Wells Fargo

Build your experience.

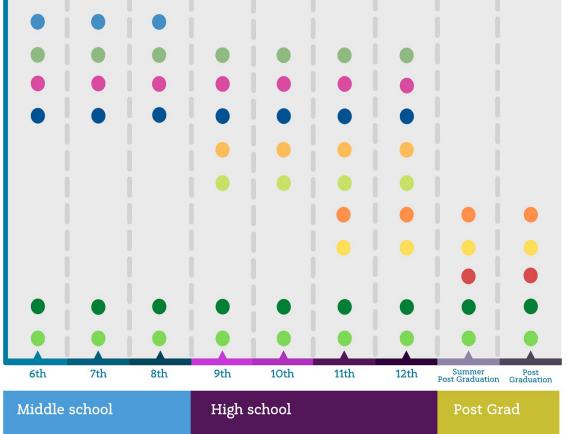

LiNC-IT

*Governor's Educator Discovery Award

*Teacher Externships

*Denotes educator-only initiatives

Work-based learning should
be an essential
component of education
beginning in middle school.
Engage with the Navigator

Remote Learning Working Group

5 First round pilots

- Edgecombe
- Halifax
- Hyde
- Robeson
- Swain

5 Second round pilots

- Bertie
- Columbus
- Gates
- Martin
- Northampton

40+ Remote
Learning
Working Group
Meetings

4 Conferences

- REAL
- REAL 2.0
- STEM Connect
- Cultural Arts LIVE

Connectivity Efforts

- 192 bus WiFi rangers
- 84,520 Hotspots
- 458 Park & Learns

123 participating members with 6 subcommittees formed

- New Website now LIVE!

Get Involved!

- Engage with the NAVIGATOR
- Host a LiNC-IT Intern
- Participate in the Remote Learning Working Group: email caroline.sullivan@nc.gov
- Judge in the Ready, Set, App! Competition
- Share through NC Career Connections
- Sign up for Students@Work 2022
- Provide opportunities through Career Launch & Youth Apprenticeship programs
- Join NCBCE

