Program

Winfield presented Diane Cangemi and Jill Cohen, Director, and President of the Chamber of Commerce, respectively. Before turning the program over to them he noted the good cover article in the latest Rotary Magazine about Chris Kolenda. He also brought some travel books which are worth the read, and available to borrow. Finally, he encouraged everyone to plan a trip to see our country. Jill spoke first, mentioning her education background and where she came from. However, her talk focused on rebuilding the Chamber since some turmoil which occurred last spring. With the help of Patrick Morrissey, they went back and rebuilt the membership list, which is still growing. She stated that they are seeking a more diverse membership. Diane spoke about her efforts to build that membership and a good database. Besides having a Halloween event in Oct., they put up a billboard on Hwy. 17 promoting Hertford. Currently, she is working on a Dog Festival, that will occur at the Rec. Center on April 1st.
