Opening Activities

Henry opened the meeting at 8:00 am. Members recited the Pledge of Allegiance, sang You're a Grand Old Flag, then Henry gave the Invocation.

Announcements

- * Remember Hunger Heroes. Drop off at The Hub.
- * The next Students of the Month will occur on 4/16.
- * Please remember to support the Interact upcoming Walking for Water fundraiser on 3/22.
- * Henry reported on the PET's training from this past weekend. The new District Governor will continue with Riding for Tony fundraiser next year and the focus will be on building Clubs locally.
- * Mickey Drew was encouraged to think about promoting the RYLA Program next year with 2-4 juniors.

Students of the Month

The students of this month were Vivien Lane and Jacob Nixon. Each spoke briefly about their academic and extracurricular activities. Among other activities, Vivien noted that she is performing in the upcoming production of the Adams Family (next Wed. & Thurs.). For his part, Jacob has been very involved in being a volunteer with the Bethel Fire Dept.

Program

Due to illness, the planned speaker was unable to attend. However, Frank gave an interesting presentation on a trip he made to India in 2017. The purpose of the trip was to help vaccinate children on National Immunization Day. Volunteers throughout India were able to immunize 172 million children on that day.

Concluding Activities

- * Happy Bucks: Henry
- * 50/50 Raffle: Jack won & donated it to Polio Plus
- * Members recited the 4-Way Test.
- * The meeting adjourned at 9:00 am.

Respectfully submitted by Henry
