Testimonials

"Rotary has provided me a place to develop great friendships, enjoy great fellowship and eat great food. Those are the things everyone wants but aren't sure where to find them. Morehead City Noon Rotary is the place"
Gene McClendon

"Over Twenty five years in Rotary has been rewarding for me in friendships and business. It is one of the best organizations for giving back to the community on the local, national and international level. It has truly expanded my horizons."
David Horton

"Morehead City Noon Rotary Club has introduced me to a network of businesses and leaders in our community. It has provided an avenue for me to give back to those in need and develop lifelong friendships with good people"
Joe Nutz, MD

How We Distribute Funds

The Club determined the priority for fund giving: Children, The Elderly and Education. Organizations submit a grant request which is reviewed by Committee.

There are various other means of contributing funds within the Rotary framework.
