From the Editor's Desk:

It was heartening to see such a good turnout at our monthly fellowship dinner, at Chuck's. I am proud of the fact that three members of the crowd that evening included members of my family (my grandson Josh Gregorio, my granddaughter Erin Davies, and myself). That turns out to be approximately 14% of the folks in attendance. My wife, Jane, would have been there as well, if she had been able to go. Maybe next month.

Tary's Rotary Minute:

In the eighties, we had a raffle each week with the top prize being a bottle of whiskey. That lasted for a short while, at which time we decided we should consider a more appropriate prize—one that could not be consumed on the drive home.

Dinner at Chuck's, with Minimal Comment:

(Below, in striped shirt) We had a guest from WestConn Rotaract, Samatha Gerber. She needs funds for a humanitarian trip to Bangladesh. Let's help her.
