From the Editor's Desk:

We Met at Chuck's for our Monthly Fellowship Meeting, and Sung Happy Birthday to Caryl Lucchesi:

In celebration of John's 90th birthday, Caryl and John's 65th wedding anniversary, and John's 50 years in Rotary, your Editor presented birder Caryl with an album of his posterized bird photos not realizing it was her birthday. How serendipitous is that?

Yours in Rotary Service, Ralph

Tary's Rotary Minute: In December of 1977 our current Spoke Editor, Ralph Welsh, was asked to be the guest Editor of the Spoke. Not knowing he would eventually become the full-time Editor, he started his Spoke Editor's page with "As the guest Editor of this week's Spoke, I accept full responsibility for all errors, omissions, and lapses of good judgement; however, I caution each of you not to be critical of this hapless volunteer, since it may be your turn next." In reality, it was his turn next, and next, and on and on....(photo is how I looked when Ralph first edited the Spoke).

Dinner at Chuck's with Minimal Comment:

Guest Steve Kahn is an affection-ado of flying planes, helicopters and drones. So you want to fly a drone? Steve is the man to see.

Luncheon Dates: 1/31 Tour of Hospice (off site); 2/7 Wellness Coach Marion Lynott; 2/14 Carl Bailey brings us up to speed on his Nicaraguan project, and Grass Roots Tennis; 2/21 Debby Bain tells us about health advocacy; 3/14 Laurie Kenagy informs us of the magnificent Ridgefield Symphony Orchestra; and on 3/21 Younghee Sin will tell us about the Korean Spirit and Cultural Promotion Project.
