From the Editor's Desk:

Make sure your calendars are updated for the following:

- Next week, October 31st, we meet at the Howard Lasser Craft Center, on Route 25, in Brookfield.
- November 21st we will host the Lion's Club, for lunch, at the Ethan Allen Inn.
- December 5th, the Raffle will be conducted at Ethan Allen at lunch.

In addition, we need to do better on the sale of the raffle tickets—and of course each one of us needs to have a bird seed wreath for the yard at $20 (we keep half of the proceeds).

Finally, don't forget to vote. It will affect generations to come.

Tary's Rotary Minute:

In 1982 (September) we had Governor's Day including dinner at the Ridgewood Country Club followed by a Charles Ives concert at the Ives Hall, on the WestConn Campus on White Street. The only thing missing was the Governor, but Abe Gordon, a former Vice Pres. of RI was there. Ralph Welsh was our club president at the time. Governor's Day typically started with Lunch and then a trip to the Great Danbury Fair. We miss the Day and we miss the Fair.

What the Jays are Saying--

"I'm just waiting for that bird seed wreath to be hung up. Where is that wreath? It was promised to us a while ago."
