From the Editor's Desk:

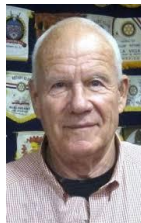

I would like to remind the club of the Monday meeting being held by the Newtown Rotary Club, 9/30/19. It will focus on membership, and will be held at their new Community Center, 8 Simpson St., at 6:00 pm. Bring a prospective Rotarian if you can. It should be a good fellowship event involving other members of our Area 3 clubs. The cost will be $20 per person.

Also, we have two Amber Alert events coming up in October that are nearby (Home Depot 10/5 at 9 am, and Newtown Reed School, at 10 am). Bob could use your help. They are also good fellowship events. And, oh yes. Sell your raffle tickets!

Yours in Rotary Service, Ralph

Tary's Rotary Minute:

Rotary has done so much over the years. We played a part in establishing the UN, and are the only service club that has always had a presence there...and how many of you knew we had a U.S. Postage stamp issued in our honor? It was printed in 1955, Rotary's 50th anniversary, has our wheel, and our motto, SERVICE ABOVE SELF. Pretty neat, huh?

Yours in Rotary Service, Tary

Dinner at Chuck's with Minimal Comment:

Serious Discussions, then laughter---

But the sweetest smile of all was that of 2 week old Bryson Horton, Great Grandson of Adele and Tary Tarlton, seen in iPhone photo passed around the room. Congrats to Tary, Adele and their family.
