From the Editor's Desk:

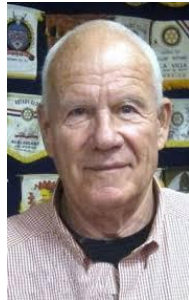

It's always a pleasure to meet with the Lions on their own turf. I love their super-sized big meat balls, and the charming kids singing in the choir. The fellowship is the best part, through, meeting friends we have chatted with, and worked with, over the years. It's a nice experience to end the year.

Yours in Rotary Service, Ralph

Tary's Rotary Minute:

While looking over some old Spokes, I discovered a note about the new secretary. He was reported to have a change in style from last years, his report took less than a minute to present, it was laconic, business like, and bereft of the lighter touch. Turns out that person was me—one of the few members in the club able to spell "Tary" right, I should note.

Yours in Rotary Service, Tary
