June 27: Installation Dinner at Rustica.

6/13/19 Meeting Minutes:

Visitors: Zachary German, Dan's recently U. Florida grad son (and now on an IT job hunt)

Visiting Rotarians: Today's speaker and Past President, Devon Rotary, Tom Johnson

Moving onto Happy/Sad Fines: Tad is officially an empty-nester now that his youngest has graduated from high school. Tracey gave a Happy Birthday fine for Flag Day. Bob presented our scholarships at Platt Tech. Win was happy for Dan's mayoral candidacy launch, attracting over 200 people at Stonebridge. Ray took another part of his CPA test and we all hope that the results will make him very happy. Literacy Volunteers has their annual Neon Run fundraiser on July 17. Pretty quiet meeting in spite of big attendance, except for our S of A's antics, of course.

Speaker: Tammi Johnson, Literacy Volunteers of Southern CT. Our chapter of literacy Volunteers started in 1994. 36 million Americans cannot read, write or do math above the 3rd grade level. Stunning and sad statistics. In Milford alone 47 languages are spoken. LVSCT has 121 students and 80 volunteers (including Cyrus). They work with adults, children and also offer computer literacy. And help the students understanding the cultural differences. There is one on one teaching plus groups classes now to foster friendships and community building.
