

The

WAVE

Rotary Club of Edmonds

April, 2024

A note from your editor:

March was an unusually quiet month for our busy and active club. But...

Shelly and Maggie K. are already hard at work gearing up for Oktoberfest. This is an all hands on deck fund-raiser, so be ready to sign up when the volunteer sheets come out.

We have a Fireside coming up on April 24th at Carol Kinney's home. The discussion will be International Convention.

Our club will be participating in another Tiny House Build on April 27th. I think it's full at this time, but see Suzanne if you want to be on the sub list.

Enjoy your Wave - Maggie

MARCH SPEAKERS:

Brian welcomed Rachel Garner of the Band Lele. Rachel just opened Musicology on 5th Ave. in Edmonds, which is exciting news for those of us who still love vinyl.

Robert Ha and his friends from the Asian Service Center did an amazing job pinch hitting for a last minute cancellation. It was great to learn about all the services the center has to offer.

MEMBER PRIDE:

Juliet Chandler gets her Red Badge.

Juliet is the Director of Sales and Marketing at Antholody of Edmonds, a new upscale senior living facility coming to Edmonds. For more information: <https://www.anthologyseniorliving.com/senior-living/wa/edmonds/72nd-ave-w/>

Debbie and her Membership team have put together a business card style handout to make it easy to connect. Be sure to ask Kathy for a few at our next meeting.

March Social: Vie and Vin

Yep, here we are enjoying wine at Vie and Vin. Not just random photos because your editor forgot to take photos.

Clothes for Kids – Shoe Drive

Our Club's amazing Service Committee completed another great project that will benefit kids in our district

This is who we are!!

Club members Nancy, Suzanne, Alison and Elise join very happy staff at Clothes for Kids to present shoes.
