WELCOME & PLEDGE

President Pam welcomed us all, and called on Kathy Miller to lead the Pledge.

THOUGHT OF THE DAY

Greg Scott led the "Thought of the Day." He talked about world peace and understanding, and tied those thoughts to the Four Way Test of Rotary.

MOMENT OF SILENCE

Tragically, we were informed that Mark Lipps suffered a fall and injured himself. He is scheduled for surgery tomorrow . We wish him well and hope that he fully recovers.

GUESTS

Kathy Miller (you may remember her from leading the Pledge) was introduced. We are hoping she will soon be a member of our club. Also present as a guest was the Lake County Law Librarian whose name i didn't catch, and neglected to ask her after the meeting.

President Pam called for two minutes of fellowship, which is all we can handle without a fight breaking out!

DETECTIVE & HAPPY BUCKS

Lance was our detective.

He first attacked Alex, who never does anything wrong, because Alex's daughter has the same birthday as Lance. Because Lance is such a gentleman, he allowed Alex to pass her fine to someone else, but she was too shy to do that. David Moon Wainwright came to her rescue and paid the fine.

Eric was fined for being named the Employee of the month, which is not surprising because he runs the office.

Beth was fined because she burned the bread we should have had for lunch.

Next, Marie was happy because Lance delivered wine barrels to her house to be used for the Christmas trees.

Jennifer was happy about the pear pie we had for dessert.

Pam was happier about the salad.

ANNOUNCEMENTS ANNOUNCEMENTS ANNOUNCEMENTS

Next Wednesday will be Rotary in the Dark at THAT RANCH. Which ranch?
THAT RANCH.

Bring whatever you want to eat and drink. You may purchase pumpkins, and there will be rides through the corn field if the corn is as high as an elephant's eye.

Oct. 15 is the wine auction at the Hidden Valley Lake golf course restaurant.

Oct. 19 is some kind of Health and Wellness event. For more information, check Marie's Website.

LARCA is alive and functioning. They are concentrating on the 30 homes which were recently damaged in the fire in Clearlake. you may donate directly to LARCA , or through District 5130 Disaster page in MyRotary.com.

SPEAKER

Alex introduced our speaker, Alyssa Mingo from Bi Costal Media. She is o\Lake County's local representative. If you or your business need to get better known in the community, she can be an important resource.

SUNSHINE

President Pam tried her best to not have a Sunshine report for September, but Lance and Beth persisted, and won out.
