Welcome, Pledge, Thought for the Day

President Pam opened with two bells.

Janice led the pledge.

Greg led the thought for the day. Attorney Steve Brookes is in the hospital. Eric Paarsch Senior has passed away. It's been one year since we lost Ruth. (We all miss her, she was awesome.)

Sunshine

Beth brought the sunshine.

Lilia, Marie, Colleen's husband Thad, John's partner Kim and the rarely seen Fred Christensen all had birthdays.

April's been married for 32 years.

Guests

Faith's friend Marion attended.

Detective/Happy Bucks

Detective Lance fined himself for asking a young girl for her phone number.

Dave M-W paid for dropping a platter on the floor.

Channeling Buddha, Deborah told us that "community is the whole of holy."

Pam double-parked, forcing Jeff to park in a handicapped spot. Lance suggested that this was an appropriate spot for Jeff.

Dave M-W was happy for Dave S's help loading and unloading.

Beth and her granddaughter are working on the time capsule.

Marty celebrated the very successful and smoothly run crab feed.

"Gassy" Jennifer kept the mike in her back pocket.

Anders told a joke about kissing a polar bear. Dennis barely got the joke.

Announcements/Rotary Rumble

Rotary After Dark next week at Joy Madeiros Veteran's Museum near CVS at 5:30. Next month at the Taylor Observatory.

Rock stars April, Jeff and Dave S for their work on the time capsule. The site has been located. It will have crepe myrtles and boulders instead of a wall to block the view of the bathrooms.

The smoothly operated crab feed brought in about $20,000! Beth's crew received a well-earned standing ovation. The fairground's crew bent over backwards to help. The whole event was wrapped up by 8:30 p.m.

The Easter Egg Hunt will be back at the fairgrounds. Greg and Carlos are leading the way.

Don't forget the upcoming centennial celebrations.

Finley

Greg won the cash, Marty won the wine.
