Call To Order

The lovely and talented future president, Faith called the meeting to order at 12:05 p.m.

Pledge

Jeff led the pledge.

Guests

Michael, incoming president of the Kelseyville club, was present.

Thought for the Day and Moment of Silence

Nobody was called on for the thought. But it was apparent that we need to be thinking of and praying for our president, Pam who has received a troubling health diagnosis.

Head to Heart

Deb has not yet experienced the epiphany but her joining the club was "heartful." Likewise, Melissa said Rotary was a natural fit for her, given her volunteer instincts, and she feels "blessed" to be a member of the club. Giovanni continues to be impressed with the values held by his fellow Rotarians and his membership is a good complement to his role as an educator.

Happy Bucks/Detective

Carlos made it clear at the very beginning that claims of the detective may or may not be truthful. Just beware.

Lance was called out for leaving Carlos hanging.

Faith was recognized for raising $2,197 at last Wednesday's karaoke night.

Participants were called upon one at a time by Carlos and allowed to pass their fines to those who didn't attend the event.

Beth handed off her fine to Dave S.

Dave W. made Marie pay for his.

I passed mine onto Jennifer.

Jeff, who had everyone at the event pay not to hear him sing, passed his fine onto Art.

John L., who has a fine tenor voice, passed his fine to Mark the Lipp.

Birthdays

Lilia A Powers
February 9th

Marie Schrader
February 21st

And Faith handed her fine to Lance.

Happy Bucks members included:

Beth celebrating Jeff's non-singing performance.

Jennifer was moved by her attendance at the recent District 5130 "Peace Conference" in Rohnert Park. Best conference ever!

Art was happy about the great outcome experienced by his daughter Katy after spinal surgery.

John was happy about the Pear Festival.

Announcements

April gave an update on the Club Centennial planning.

Faith informed us that the upcoming Crab Feed is sold out! She announced that she has $23,000 in event sponsorship in hand. Still needs people to donate desserts for the event, as well as gift baskets.

Program

Ariel Carmona, managing editor of the Record-Bee, filled us in regarding operations at the newspaper. It is challenging producing the print edition of the paper, given the online age that is upon us. He alerted us to a coming redesign of the print edition front page and that he relies on help from high school and college interns to supplement his paid reporters, the number of which fluctuates greatly.

Head to Heart

David W. had his moment witnessing the club's Christmas basket give-away after moving to Lakeport.

Faith shared that her Head to Heart moment occurred when she attended a Rotary event in Redding a few years ago and was welcomed into local Rotary homes.

Lance was moved by his experience as SAG organizer in the many Konocti Challenge events for which he volunteered.

Paul Harris

Art presented Dave S. with his first Paul Harris and Mark L. with his Paul Harris +2 pin.

He noted that our club over the years has donated over $356,000 to the foundation.

Finley

Melissa won the $$
