Spur Report October 19, 2022

By Kathy S. Coyle on Wednesday, October 19, 2022

Remembering Al Lewis

Spur report written and published by Kathy Coyle

President Elect Sheila Fagliano acting on Sblend's behalf opened the meeting at 12:30ish. She is doing a great job of running the show for Sblend. Getting some great practice for her upcoming year.

Bill Nebo led us in the Pledge of Allegiance.

The songster gave us a rousing rendition of "If I Had a Hammer" written, performed and made famous by Peter, Paul and Mary.

Thought for the Day: Hank Shay gave us the inspirational message today. He mentioned all the trials and troubles we have had over the centuries in our country and the world. We have gotten through all of them so far. We'll see about the current one.

Meeting Front Line: Spur Reporter/Publisher Kathy C(Nobody signed up or volunteered for Spur reporter, so Kathy did both), Irv Stowers - photographer, Jeff Youngsma - Zoom host and Beth Wilson as greeter.

Visiting Rotarians: none

Guests: Al's wife Gwen and his daughter Lynn with husband Jim and son William Hall (family of Al Lewis). Also visiting today was potential members Chau Pham Bui and Linda Stafford.

Announcements:

Engineers without Borders (EWB)online fundraising event: Pat Coyle encouraged us to participate in this event, in particular the online auction. Over the years EWB has partnered with our club and Area 4 on projects in Nicaragua. Jay Davis is a major sponsor and has donated some nice bottles of Talking Bull. Carol Howell has also donated some great Bent Creek Wine. There are plenty of other items from Livermore Donors, so support EWB by some bids! The Silent Auction: Our online auction opens Wednesday October 19 and runs through our in-person Main Event on Thursday, October 27th Go to <https://paybee.io/@bossd@5> Or scan the QR code:

District Area 4 is having a benefit for District Governor Savita's "Empowering Girls" project:

- Donations ($15 (or more) will be taken at the door for a full evening of wine tasting and finger food.
- Please RSVP if you think you might attend

If you have any questions contact Kamal Della @ 925.413.4656 (he is in charge of fundraising for Dublin Rotary)

Students of the Month from Livermore High School: Keith Beck has taken on this role, previous held by Hank Shay. Keith thanked Hank for all the years he put into this program.

Principal Helen Gladden introduced three very accomplished and articulate students. When the students themselves spoke it was quite wonderful to hear them tell us about their hope and dreams, and how special this award it to them.

Congratulations to Jaden Zika, Anthony Trujillo and Emma Farren!

The program: Mike Morgan introduced Judge Roy Hashimoto, who gave us a nice talk about Al Lewis's career as a Superior Court Judge. Mike Morgan, Mike Thompson, Paul Thompson and Steve Powell told some stories about the court and also Al as a Rotarian, including fishing, golfing and flying. Al's wife, Gwen, told us her own story about Al and thanked the club for remembering him at this special program. Al's daughter Lynn Hall and her husband Jim and son, William, also joined the meeting on Zoom and thanked us for honoring Al.

Next week's program is: Brad Roberts "The Eroding Security Environment."

Note: If you are willing to help write up the Spur, let us know. We will let you know what is required and provide you with a template that is easy to use. It's not easy to put together the bulletin when there is no report.
