Spur Report November 1, 2022

Spur fill-in reporter and publisher: Ted Michels

A note to start.....

This Spur was put together with minor notes, the slides, and any other thoughts I could remember. We need more people to sign-up to be reporters. Please access the online file noted below to sign-up!

President Sblend called the meeting to order at 12:30p using the gavel that just showed up last week after a long vacation.

Carol Howell led the pledge of allegiance

The Songsters led by Stu Frazier did the song “All I have To Do Is Dream” in honor of the speakers for today talking about One Nation Dream Makers.

Thought for the Day was done by Trish Munro. She related a story about a situation she was a part of regarding what to do when an idea receives push-back. She emphasized how important it is to use the input from others to make better decisions and move forward.

Meeting Front Line: Spur Reporter & Publisher - Ted Michels; Meeting Photographer – Irv Stowers; A/V – Paul McCandless; Zoom Host/Chat Monitor – Pay Coyle; Greeter – Kathlene Tabet

Guests: Chow Pham and Linda Stanford who are due to become members shortly!

Birthdays & Anniversaries for November were announced by Carol Lince

Announcements:

Goud Memula let people know about an event to celebrate Diwali called the “Livermore Diwali Festival” will be held at the Bankhead Theatre on Sunday, November 6 from 11:00a to 3:00pm.

Beth Wilson announced that she will be doing a sock drive again this year. For the next few weeks bring new pairs of socks to the meeting and Beth will collect them and she will take them over the Glide Memorial Church in the city for people living the tenderloin area. The effort last year was very much appreciated by the people that received the socks.

Loretta Kaskey announced a service project for this Saturday at Sunflower Hill from 9:00am – 12 noon. A shed needs to be taken down so a new one can be put up. Bring gloves, power tools, and pry bars.

Nile Runge announced that it is possible to get business cards for Rotary. He suggested it is good to have them to give to other people as contact for people to use who may want to join our club. If you want some, contact Irv Stowers.

Dennis O’Brien presented a pendant he got from a visit to another Rotary Club in Salem, MA. He also mentioned an upcoming event called 2.2 for 22 to help vets.

Mary Anne Rozsa sent around a sign-up sheet for the RFL children’s holiday party.

Next week’s program in honor of Veteran’s Day on November 11 will feature Mike Gilmore, retired Staff Sergeant and former commander of Post 7265.

The Program: This week's meeting featured our own Ronnie Forbes along with Sande Munro, who talked about One Nation Dream Makers. To hear the full presentation go to the YouTube link shown below.
