Spur Report 10/12/2022

Spur Publisher: Theodore C. Michels

Spur Reporter: Will Bateson

Debbie Peck assisted President Sblend, in the meeting from Zoomland (in Hawaii)

Pledge of Allegiance:
Led by Jim Schmid

Tim and Stu led the songsters on All Together Now

Thought for The Day: Alan Burnham, the theme of Alan's talk was that character counts. He cited these characteristics as most important to success: being resilient, reliable, and responsible. Companies find many candidates lacking in in these core characteristics. Teaching the importance of character is still important. A great tie in to our guess speaker today, Chris Van Shaack.

Visiting Rotarians:

Vernon Shalway, an American Ukrainian from the San Ramon Valley Club

Guests:

Chao Sam recently moved to Livermore and may be interested in joining us, Anne White (Livermore School Board Member) and Steve Drouin (Livermore School Board candidate)

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- Sblend: last Weds of each month rotary will pick a theme for our meetings. October will be a Halloween theme, President Sblend will lead us in a fun game; November will be 'favorite football team' day. Should be great fun!

-Sheila: lunch coming next week! Via Ophelia's, a local deli. Look for a separate email on the details

- Bob Cowan: READY field trip to Exploratorium last Saturday, enjoyed by all!

-David Rounds: Girl Empowerment fundraiser at Page Mill winery Tuesday October 27th 4:30-8:00 pm enjoy some great wine for a great cause.

Next week: Judge Roy Hashimoto is our guest speaker. This will be a special talk focusing on our own Judge Al Lewis's legal career.

Today's speaker, Chris Van Shaack, Superintendent LVJUSD
