Author and longtime Las Vegas local Brian Rouff flourished in media and marketing serving clients worldwide as managing partner at Las Vegas-based firm Imagine Communications. Years spent crafting targeted content also proved to be the perfect training for writing novels and Brian has produced three authentic, gripping works of fiction set in Las Vegas. “Dice Angel”, “Money Shot” and “The House Always Wins”. His most recent book, “A Long September,” is a memoir that chronicles his near-death experience after a "routine" heart procedure.

Wendy Hodges-Kent, Director of Development for Junior Achievement of Southern Nevada, reinforced the the mission of Junior Achievement where “we believe in possible. Each day, we work to help young people discover what’s possible in their lives. We do this by helping them connect what they learn in school with life outside the classroom. We let them know it’s possible to invest in their future, to gain a better understanding of how the world works, and to pursue their dreams. We show them that it’s possible for tomorrow to be a better day.”

Back by popular demand our very own Ben Bergren, Senior Pastor at Community Lutheran Church in Las Vegas. For our last meeting of the year, Ben presented the history behind why this time of year is so important to so many people. He explored the origins and traditions surrounding the celebration of the holidays, including Christmas, Hanukkah, and Kwanzaa. Ben received his Bachelor’s degree in Sociology before moving on to complete his Master of Divinity at Wartburg Theological Seminary in Iowa.
