San Marino Rotary Rotoscope April 13, 2023

April 6th Program Pasadena Community Foundation Our partners in Service

Pasadena is one of the great cities for community service, whether it is the Tournament of Roses or the Showcase House or, more recently, the Motor Classic. It is therefore not surprising that the city has a large and very active community foundation that was established way back in 1953 by real estate developer and resident Louis Webb. Today, the foundation manages more than $130 million in charitable assets. It is also not surprising that the two presenters—CEO Jennifer Fleming DeVoll and Programs Director Jeannie Bogaard—are both fellow Rotarians (from the Pasadena club).

SMILES ALL AROUND April 8, 2023

Our club's booth at the Great San Marino Egg Hunt in Lacy Park was hugely popular as we handed out balloons and Easter stickers to hundreds of delighted youngsters. Many thanks to Grant Fujiwara for leading this event as well as Denise for arranging a hard-working crew of Titan Interactors to blow up all the balloons. The weather was perfect and the Rotarians who volunteered were rewarded by the happy smiles on the kids' faces.

April 13 Program MICHAEL WHITE ADOBE and a CRAFT TALK

Marla Felber will be doing a 15-minute presentation on the Michael White Adobe, which is the second oldest building in San Marino, dating to around 1845.

New member Jason Ramos will be doing his craft talk. Jason is the executive director of the South Pasadena San Marino YMCA. He was born and raised in Pasadena. His mother—a nurse--was originally from Canada and his father is originally from Mexico. Both parents met while working in a hospital in the Los Angeles area, where they fell in love. Jason and his wife Sierra currently live in Anaheim Hills.

District Assembly April 22 in Apple Valley.

Recommended for incoming board members and committee chairs, but all members are welcome. Registration is now open.

District Conference May 5-6 Las Vegas NV
