APRIL 24 TAT RECAP: Canoe House

Plenty of Rotarians on hand, enjoying tasty Hawaiian food and margaritas. What more can you ask for. A big thanks to Ginny for recommending the Canoe House in South Pasadena. We enjoyed a sit-down meal with drinks on the cozy patio and were able to reconnect with some members who can't make the daytime meetings and meet some prospective new members. As a club, we are now fully rested and ready to finish out the Rotary year in fine fashion.

MAY 1 MEETING: Double Feature: Teacher Mini Grants and Rotary tools.

Teacher Mini Grants, totaling around $40,000, were distributed last Fall under the direction of Denise Wadsworth. We will hear from some of the recipients. Afterwards, webmaster Rick Chou is going to introduce members to some useful Rotary tools that will greatly improve our engagement and enjoyment of Rotary.
