THURSDAY AROUND TOWN (TAT) A HUGE SUCCESS

Fall was in the air last Thursday evening as we gathered on the patio of Foothill Restaurant in Pasadena to enjoy live music, finger food, and adult beverages. We mingled with ourselves and with friends from our sister club from South Pasadena. Many thanks to Russ Osmonson for choosing the venture and making the arrangements. As a man about town, Russ knows the best places to meet. There is a movement afoot to draft Russ into the permanent position of TAT Chairperson.

OCT 5 PROGRAM: HIGH SCHOOL MUSIC THEATER UP CLOSE AND PERSONAL

The official title of Kyle Duncan's program is "JRAY Wants the World to Know: High School Musical Theater is Thriving in So-Cal." JRAY stands for John Raitt Awards for Youth and supports high school performing art education in Southern California. Kyle will bring along a few singers to entertain us and will also provide a round table discussion about high school music theater. Kyle is the perfect person to bring this type of program. Not only were his children active in theater at San Marino High School but Kyle himself comes from a music theater family. For over 45 years, Kyle's parents ran the Fullerton Civic Light Opera which was a very successful regional theater company that produced many award-winning musicals and launched many a young performer's career. Come experience Kyle's passion for music theater.
