Guest Speaker - Kevin Champagne

Kevin Champagne is the Executive Director for MacDonell United Methodist Children's Services and discussed the pending merger with Options for Independence. He has worked with MacDonell since 2013, and prior to that with Options for Independence, Cancer Care Specialists & Mary Bird Perkins, and Chabert Medical Center. Kevin received his Bachelors' and Masters in Psychology at Nicholls where he was a member of the soccer and rifle teams. He later received his Masters of Health Administration from Tulane University.

Kevin is a member and past president of the Houma Sunshine Rotary Club, currently on the Houma Terrebonne Chamber Executive Board, and on the Houma Downtown Revitalization Board, and Ascent Health. He has two daughters who are both still in college.

Derek Chaisson - Rotarian of the Week

Derek Chaisson joined our club in 2012 at the invitation of Louis (Spunky) Routier because he wanted to make a difference in the community he calls home. Derek is a senior vice president of commercial banking at United Community Bank.

Derek's hobbies are hunting, fishing, and the outdoors. He is married to Angela Chaisson and together they have four children: two boys and two girls.

Weekly Words of Wisdom

Great art is never produced for its own sake. It is too difficult to be worth the effort.
