Guest Speaker - Karen O. Schilling

Karen O. Schilling is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker who retired from her day job last year and is still trying to define what retired life is. In the 15 months of her retirement, she has helped her former workplace with training activities with law enforcement on behavioral health topics, and staff, with other required trainings. Other staff have finally been named to assume those duties so now she is helping them to transition into those roles.

Karen is a 1993 graduate of Leadership Terrebonne and was asked to lead the program in 2004 as the facilitator and now Executive Director. She is actively involved in planning the monthly meetings and with the Alumni Board. Karen was selected to participate in the 2023 Cohort for Leadership Louisiana.

After serving for many years actively on the Board of Le Petit Theatre de Terrebonne and as president for several years, Karen became an emeritus board member. What that means is, she doesn't have to attend board meetings, and cannot vote, but still finds herself directing this year's summer musical

"Jimmy Buffet's Escape to Margaritaville". Fins Up Parrotheads! Retirement may be to the real Margaritaville later this summer.

Jay Tipton - Rotarian of the Week

Jay Tipton joined The Rotary Club of Houma in 2018 at the invitation of Brunnie Bisland. He has over 15 years experience as an administrator for Adult Residential Care Provider and serves as the Executive Director of Terrebonne Place Assisted Living.

Jay and his wife Karla share three children: Sam 10, Madelyn 5, along with their daughter Taylor and her husband Sam. They were blessed with their first granddaughter, Beck Olivia Britt in September of 2022 and are expecting a new grandbaby in October 2023.

Having always admired organizations that provide community service work, Jay feels Rotary has offered the opportunity to work with professional like-minded individuals in an effort to give and build a better community.
