Guest Speaker - Dean Schouest - Houma-Terrebonne Civic Center

Dean Schouest attended Nicholls State University and has completed multiple Dale Carnegie courses and seminars focused on business & people skills. He spent 28 years in the oilfield in management and business development. Dean is a CASA volunteer, a member of Chabert Medical Foundation and co-creator of Toys for Tots on MLK and the Louisiana Flood & Mud Festival. He also resurrected the Downtown on the Bayou Festival. He is known by many as 'Tito' for Tito's famous jambalaya, which he is always cooking for many different benefits and causes.

Dean is the Director of the Houma-Terrebonne Civic Center and recently was also named Director of the Bayou Country Sports Park.

David Ohlmeyer - Rotarian of the Week

David Ohlmeyer joined Rotary in 2018 at the invitation of Pete Benoit. David joined the club to get involved and make a difference in the community, especially with the children and veterans.

David is an Allstate agent. His hobbies include sports with his kids and spending time with his family.

David has been married to his wife Sonya for 18 years and they have five children. Sonya is an Educational Diagnostician in the school system.

Annual Installation Banquet Last Night

Our annual installation banquet was last night and, by decree of your newly installed president Morgan Allison, was a lot of fun.

Morgan Allison officially starts as your new club president on the first of July, and you only have yourselves to blame.

The newsletter starting next week will be produced by Cal McKey. Wish him luck!

Weekly Words of Wisdom

Many of life's failures are people who did not realize how close they were to success when they gave up.
