Guest Speakers - Thomas K. Watkins, Jr, South Central Planning & Development Commission

Thomas K Watkins, Jr is the Manager-Legal/Special Projects Division for the South Central Planning and Development Commission. His day to day responsibilities are for the assigned legal matters, management of various hurricane recovery loan programs and regional condemnation programs.

Tom received his Juris Doctor Degree in May 1994 from Southern University Law Center, Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Having worked in the private legal industry for close to 30 years, he has now turned his attention to managing the legal services that oversees the funding for special programs/projects with South Central Planning and Development Commission.

Michael D. Bergeron, CPA/CVA - Rotarian of the Week

Michael began his professional career as a Certified Public Accountant in Baton Rouge and moved back to Houma in 1992. He practiced with his father, Claude Bergeron, until his retirement in 1999, then, upon the passing of his father, he founded M. Bergeron + Co. in 2005. Claude Bergeron was a longtime member of the Rotary Club of Houma and served as its President. Michael is also a past President of the Rotary Club of Houma.

Michael has been married to Tamara Freeman Bergeron for 30 plus years. They have two (2) adult children, Hunter and Hayden. Hunter is a Tankerman and recently started working in job locations in the Pacific Northwest. Hayden is in his 3rd year of law school at SULC and is a clerk with a law firm in Baton Rouge.

Michael enjoys fishing, hunting, golf, live music concerts, and gathering with friends to share laughs & libations.
