Guest Speaker - Bubba Orgeron - Superintendent of Terrebonne Parish Public Schools

Bubba and his wife Shannon have two sons, Trey, 32 yrs. old, who is a psychiatrist at Ochsner St. Anne and Mark, 30-year-old gifted Art teacher in Terrebonne Schools as well as a STHS Baseball Coach. Bubba is excited that both of his boys, their wives and two grandsons have settled in Houma close by.

Bubba has been the Superintendent in Terrebonne for the past 2 years, and he loves working and living in Terrebonne Parish. His prior work experience was as Assistant Superintendent for 7 years in the Terrebonne Parish school system.

As Superintendent, he works with administrators and teachers on curriculum, instruction, and assessments, which have a large impact on student achievement. He enjoys golfing, marsh fishing and he and his wife enjoy spending time with their family and their two rescued and energetic Brittany Spaniels, Levi and Max, and their newly adopted Walker Hound sister, Lena.

Bubba was invited to join Rotary by Stacy Solet and has greatly enjoyed the experience and meeting the great members of the Houma Rotary Club.
