"Dayton Performing Arts Alliance: Present and Future"

Speaker: Patrick Nugent, President & CEO

DPAA was formed a decade ago when Dayton's ballet, opera, and philharmonic orchestra joined forces. What is the current state of the organization? What are our aspirations for the future? Patrick will discuss these questions and more.

Chair of the Day: Penny Wolff

This Happened Last Monday...

Before the meeting was called to order, the club was entertained by the musical stylings of guitarist Eugene Fortier. Shaun Yu called the meeting to order and announced that Patrick Nugent from the Dayton Performing Arts Alliance was unable to speak to us today due to a family medical issue. Patrick will speak to the club next week. Instead, we were honored to have Lisa Hanson, the President and CEO of Culture Works address the group.

Bill Nance led us in prayer, the Four Way Test, and Pledge and news of the day. The special message for the Lenten season was trying to give up things like complaining, bitterness, worry, hatred and discouragement. Bill turned the podium over to Kristina Scott who introduced Wesley Board as a Visiting Rotarian.

Linda informed us of this week's March birthdays including Merle Wilberding, Kate Vriner, Ken May, Evelyn Davidson Terry Offenberger and Bob Daley. Happiest of birthdays to our March birthday members! Linda invited Day 10 and other gifts. A Day 10 was offered on behalf of upcoming Bring a Guest Day sponsored by Lisa Grigsby and will be held on April 4 and the featured group is Square One; Darlene Nelson offered a Day 10 on behalf of We Care Arts and announced the black and white gala to take place next Friday; Iris Juergens offered a Day 100 as her Paul Harris gift and in honor of the Leadership Breakfast to take place on April 7 to honor Scouting. The special guest will be former eagle scout and astronaut Michael Fossum; Dick Hattershire offered a Day 100 just for being able to be back at meetings in person; and Day 10 from Linda Groover in honor of the guitarist's music today.

Shaun then introduced Iris Juergens, Foundation Trustee who presented a Foundation check to Bill Evans, one of the founding members of Miami Valley Meals. The group's motto is "We serve those who serve the hungry". Miami Valley Meals has prepared 300,000 meals since March 2020. It is a very personal service and those who deliver the meals made by the group are often delivering to neighbors and friends. The group serves more than just elderly or people without monetary means.

Shaun then put on his chair of the day hat and introduced Lisa Hanson. He told us that she was educated at the University of Miami. She has served as the President and CEO of Culture Works ("CW") since 2017. Lisa explained that CW serves 8 counties and is currently located in the newly renovated Arcade building. The purpose of CW is to integrate the arts into our everyday lives. Art doesn't just happen or exist in museums but can be found all around us.

Lisa shared a few videos with us. The first of which focused on the resilience of the arts community and how the community as a whole benefits when the arts are shared. The organization that became CW started in 1974 as the Dayton Arts Fund and supported the Dayton Opera, the Dayton Ballet and the Dayton Philharmonic. Currently CW supports over 180 arts organizations. Some of the many organizations include, DCCC; The Human Race; Tejas and K12; Muse Machine and the Bach Society, among many others.

One of the best ways to connect with CW is to contribute to the Campaign for the Arts. This year's campaign kicked off last week. Over the last 2 years, CW was able to grant local arts organizations $372,000. In order to inject some fun back into everyone's lives, this year's campaign is co-chaired by Heater and Gem of the Dayton Dragons! Lisa described the relationship to the Arcade that CW shares. CW looks for ways to use the space it occupies to create content that can be enjoyed by the public. We were then shown a video of the AfterPARTy at the Arcade. I was unable to see the video on-line but it sounded lively! We were all encouraged to share the arts, donate and to get others to donate!

Lisa explained the importance of a thriving arts presence in our community. Nationwide artists/performances contribute $763 billion to the American economy. That number was generated before the pandemic. In the Dayton region, the arts contribute $214 million to the economy, creates 9,000 full-time jobs or their equivalents; increase residential household incomes by $153 million; and increases local government revenue by $24 million. During the pandemic, artists were hit the hardest, and everyone is grateful that artists and the community are getting back out there.

There were no winners of the Queen of Hearts drawing. The pot is over $800.

The meeting was adjourned.

Rotary Bring a Guest Day

Your Dayton Rotary Membership Committee is busy making plans for our next "bring a guest day" on Monday, April 4th

Members are encouraged to bring a prospective member guest to the meeting of April 4th where we will have guest speakers, Brent Johnson & Josh Stucky, Owners, Square One Salon & Spas. Their topic will be: Employee Engagement and the Balance of Work & Play

Our goal is 25 Prospective Member Guests for the day...so we need everyone to be thinking about who would make a great Rotarian that they can bring to this meeting to check out our club!

Lunch Cost for Prospective Members will be Covered by the Membership Committee.

MEMBERSHIP GROWTH IS EVERYONE'S RESPONSIBILITY! PLEASE DO YOUR PART!

So that we may plan properly please let Laura know if you will be bringing a guest and if you can provide your guest's name ahead of time that would be helpful as well. 937-228-3331 laura@daytonrotary.com
