This Week at Rotary

MONDAY, December 19, 2022

Sinclair Community College - or on Zoom

"Holiday Entertainment"

The Carillon Brass is composed of five talented musicians from the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra. In addition to their Carillon Brass engagements, this Brass Quintet is part of Dayton Performing Arts Alliance Learning Programs, presenting over 50 performances in area schools each year. Members are Charles Pagnard and Alan Siebert, trumpets; Sean Vore, horn; Chad Arnow, trombone; and Tim Northcut, tuba. They will present a program of seasonal holiday favorites with humor and style!

Chair of the Day: Patrick Nugent

This Happened Last Monday...

President Elect Kim Bramlage called the meeting to order and welcomed Bill Nance to the podium who led Rotarians in prayer, the Pledge, the Four Way Test and news of the day. John Capobianco was introduced and welcomed visiting Rotarians and guests.

Linda Groover, club secretary, announced Rotarians with birthdays this week including Doug Deutsch, Laura Roesch, and Luke Dennis. Linda encouraged everyone to check out the gift table and the all the silent auction items. Linda announced upcoming social events including merriment at the Bar and Bistro and Breakfast Santa next week. Linda asked that if you didn't have holiday colors on to put a $1 on the table. Day-10s: Anita Lewis gave a Day-50 for the donated a declaration of human rights book on the table for everyone. Day-50 from Sarah Hippensteel Hall for her anniversary. Doug Deutsch gave a Day-100 for his Paul Harris for his birthday. Jean Maychack gave a Day-100 for her recent wedding on November 26th. Suren gave a Day-10 in honor of Shaun Yu who picked up his gift for him yesterday. A Day-100 from Tom Lasley in honor of his 102 year old mother asking why Christina Johnson stepped down from Ohio State.

Kim Bramlage then came back to the podium and reminded everyone that the silent auction ends at 12:45 pm. Kim acknowledged several folks she hadn't seen in sometime and encouraged them to keep coming back. Frank Scott then came to the podium to share thoughts and memories about Tom Budde from Amy Racachi (who couldn't be in attendance today). Kim then asked for a moment of silence in memory of Tom. Kim then shared an update about Ed Gray - he is recovering well at Miami Valley Rehab, he did suffer a left-brain stroke. Howard Ducker's wife recently suffered a serious accident on a horse she was riding and was in the hospital for some time. He was happy to say that she is out of the hospital and in rehab and should be home by new years. Kim also asked for positive vibes for President Walt Hibner who was having a medical procedure later this week. Kim then introduced her guest Kay Fuhrman who was visiting her from Texas. Kim then turned over the podium to Dave Williamson.

Dave reminded everyone to turn in their election ballots. He introduced his elves for the day and gave directions on winning bidders for the silent auction. The 50/50 pot is up to $1500. Everyone was instructed to put a $1 on the table and whoever doesn't get their name called gets the money on the table. Dave shared a couple of bad jokes. Then started picking names for the gift table. Once all the names were selected, Shaun Yu came to the podium to announce the election results. (See article in the SMILE for winners) Shaun then invited all the individuals who wanted to participate in the ugly sweater contest to come to the front of the room. The ultimate winner was Matt Jessup who won a Rotary Picnic Blanket. Best zoom background went to Walt Hibner for his drawing of the Grinch. Next up was drawing the ticket for the 50/50 pot the winner was Connie Mahle. Shaun Yu then thanked Sue Taylor for chairing the Silent Auction which raised nearly $3,000.

Kim then announced next week's meeting's holiday entertainment from the Carillon Brass.

An Evening of Sondheim

Your Rotary Social Committee Presents...

An Evening Of Sondheim

PRESENTED BY DAYTON PERFORMING ARTS ALLIANCE

Friday, January 20, 2023

At The Schuster Center

Show Starts at 7:30 PM

Tickets are $40 per person

The Dayton Philharmonic, in collaboration with Joe Deer and the next generation of Broadway stars from the acclaimed Musical Theatre program at Wright State University, salutes Stephen Sondheim, one of the most influential musical theatre creators of our time. Known for musicals that faced the contemporary world head-on, with lyrics filled with wit and complexity, Sondheim was the creative genius behind such favorites as A Funny Thing Happened On The Way to the Forum, Into The Woods, and Sweeney Todd. Join us as we pay homage to one of Broadway's greats.

PreShow Dinner at UNO's at 5:30 PM

Dinner will be on your own check.

Please RSVP to Laura by January 11th

Tickets will be distributed at dinner
