Club Meeting - December 1, 2011

We held our annual Nominations meeting on December 1, 2011 at the Galt House. Cindy Collier gave our invocation. Bill Blocker led us in saying the Pledge and singing "R-O-T-A-R-Y" accompanied by Charlie Castner on the piano. President Stet welcomed three Visiting Rotarians and two guests. Connie Cheak announced our four birthday Rotarians; and we sang "Happy Birthday To You" to them. President Stet announced Service Award Anniversaries for Lawrence Jelsma (40 years), Tom Nugent (30 years), John Gregory (25 years) and Mark Trier (15 years), and the date and place of our next meeting, 12/08/11 in the Galt House East Grand Ballroom C. John Lannert reminded us again that our Holiday Party is on Friday, December 9 at the Brown Hotel's "Crystal Ballroom." Beaucoups door prizes will be given to those present.

Mike Kull, President Maynard L. Stetten, M.D., and Allan Parnell

We have two new members. First, Janet Heberle introduced new member, Deborah Brown, from Ohio, whom she warranted to be a veritable dynamo. President Stet then introduced John Shetler, to be our newest, and youngest (by far) Rotarian. President Stet turned the meeting over to the two Nominating Committee chairs, Allan Parnell, Second V-P of the Club, and Mike Kull, Former President (2005-2006) to introduce their respective slates of nominees for Club Officers. Barring cosmic interdiction or the like, Stuart Alexander will be our President in the Club's One Hundredth year.

Charlie Castner lit into "Alexander's Rag Time Band" and Allan sang the praises of his slate of luminaries, (who by coincidence also are "Alexander's Rag Time Band"). Allan noted that his slate has a combined 182 years of Rotary experience, or 18.2 years per nominee. Mike Kull, his silvery war helmet gleaming and its red plumes a-rippling, next stepped forward to announce the illustrious and worthy "Alexander the Great Slate." Ballots are in the mail. Vote!
