About Vince Tyra:

Vince Tyra, Athletic Director at the University of Louisville, has developed an Ethical Leadership Excellence program in partnership with the University of Louisville School of Business that teaches organizations how to create an environment to make the "right choice." Creating goals and values for the organization, by members of the organization, is a starting point for collaboration and buy in for ethical and efficient decision making. The University of Louisville Athletic Department was the first organization to begin utilizing all aspects of the program to become a leader in collegiate athletics when sizing up integrity and other key aspects to a successful organization.

August 8th Meeting Recap:

Tom Delacenserie, President and CEO of the KY Lottery, began his presentation by helping Rotarians pronounce his last name. He continued the humor by covering the myths and misconceptions associated with the lottery to include "you're more likely to get struck by lightning than to win the lottery." He discussed the Winner Debriefing Program that helps winners navigate the journey of new wealth. He concluded his presentation by exploring where the proceeds of the lottery go, to include education in the form of grants and scholarships within Jefferson County as well as the University of Louisville. Members of the KY Lottery staff handed out lottery tickets to Rotarians and guests as they left the meeting.
