About our Guest Speakers:

Jackson Snelling is using his talent to talk about something that many people struggle with: Depression and Suicide. He recently released a new song and video called "If I Only Knew," which is about suicide and prevention and mental health. Written about one of Snelling's friends who died from suicide at 14, the Scott County, Indiana teenager is using his voice to raise awareness about suicide and mental health. His music video has gone viral, logging more than 100,000 views on Facebook, and tens of thousands on YouTube. Jackson will be a special guest at the annual (now virtual) U of L Center for Depression Benefit on August 20th.

Joseph L. Bargione, PhD is a licensed psychologist and certified school psychologist. Dr. Bargione was the lead psychologist for 25 years with Jefferson County Public Schools in Louisville, KY, the 29th largest in the United States serving 101,000 students. In this position, he was responsible for facilitating the creation of trauma-informed, multi-tiered framework the District used to support students, staff, and families exposed to trauma. Dr. Bargione has presented at the state, regional, and national levels in crisis intervention, youth mental health first aid, suicide prevention, and trauma. In 2018, Dr. Bargione was awarded the Shuster Advocacy Award from the Kentucky Psychology in the Schools. He is a leader of the Bounce Coalition, a program of KentuckyYouth Advocates dedicated to building the resilience of Kentucky's children and families by improving knowledge about the impact of adverse childhood experiences (ACEs) and the skills to help people bounce back from adversity.

July 30th Meeting Recap:

The July 30th Rotary Club of Louisville meeting featured Natalia Martinez, investigative reporter and anchor at WAVE 3 News. Natalia's presentation titled, "Peeling Back the Curtain," showed how her investigations are researched, compiled and aired. Natalia also talked about how facts behind the stories are delivered to the public.
