About Tom Delacenserie and his presentation:

Back in 1988, Kentucky voters approved a constitutional amendment to allow lottery ticket sales in the Commonwealth. It was sold to voters as a way to help education in Kentucky - but has it lived up to what was expected? Hear KY Lottery President and CEO, Tom Delacenserie, explain where lottery proceeds have been spent and how they've directly affected Louisville. He'll also address a number of lottery myths and misconceptions, including whether or not you're truly more likely to get struck by lightning than win the lottery!

August 1st Meeting Recap:

Stephen Reily, Director of The Speed Art Museum which re-opened in 2016 after a $50 million renovation, updated Rotarians on the Speed's status and direction with energy and an obvious passion for the mission. In revising Speed after the renovation, Stephen said the simple mission became to "invite everyone to celebrate art forever." He showed how all components of the mission are realized, where access is created through outreach programs as well as free multi-media events and museum access (on Owsley Sundays" through 2021 thanks to Brown-Forman), and a forever celebration of art is realized by "the freedom to re-imagine exhibits inspired by the artist's vision." The best way to see for yourself how the Speed now celebrates art, is to visit their website and then come visit the museum with friends and family.
