Rotary Meeting - December 20, 2012

President Stuart Alexander called the meeting to order. Kevin Selvaggi gave our invocation. We honored the memory of Thelma Hausman Dunlevy who died on December 13. Gordon Costley led us in the pledge and song. President Stuart welcomed visiting Rotarians and guests. Karen Morrison hosted our Birthday Table. And, don't forget, there will be no meeting next week.

President Stuart announced Alan Singleton the winner of the drawing as the member who found our logo hidden in Sparks. He then reminded us we had received a letter announcing the "Second Million Dollar Campaign" for the Louisville Rotary Promise Scholarship. Having done this for Western High, we now hope to adopt another school for this purpose.

Kelly Burke announced that February 13th would be our "Rotary Night Out" which will consist of a play at the Kentucky Center, "Million Dollar Quartet" preceded by dinner across the street at the Bristol. Jeff Hadley announced that we are having a bowling event on January 5.

President Stuart showed a few slides featuring the names of some of our Rotary programs from fifty years ago. One in particular brought the house down. It was a speech by Dr. Cleo Dawson, a psychiatrist, who had written a book entitled "How to Manage a Woman". Michael Duke introduced Sean Letwat as a new member.

St. Xavier Tiger Chorus
and Director, Rick Knoop

President Stuart then announced the names of our officers and directors of our club for next year. Congratulations in particular to President-elect Randy Coe and First Vice President, Kevin Wardell. We then voted in favor of Mike Kull being our next District Governor. Congratulations to Mike.

Perry Sangalli, President of St. Xavier High School, introduced our program for the day, twelve members of the St. X Tiger Chorus, who sang a number of Christmas songs.
