

Kim Baker

President and CEO, KY Center for the Performing Arts
December 13 • Rotary Lunch Meeting
4th Floor Loft • Frazier History Museum
11:30 Buffet • 12:05 Meeting

Presentation Title: "A Distinguished Past. A Promising Future. Celebrating 35 Years at The Kentucky Center"

Kim is a strong and dynamic leader in the arts community, with extensive experience in the areas of arts administration and theatre management, communications, programming, and development. She became President & CEO of The Kentucky Center in 2014. Her lifelong passion for the arts was ignited when she was a teenager by her participation as a student in the very first class of The Kentucky Center's Governor's School for the Arts. She received her Bachelors of Arts degree from the University of Kentucky's College of Fine Arts in the Arts Administration and often returns as a guest lecturer for the program.
