About Tom Miller and his presentation:

The University of Louisville's acquisition of Jewish Hospital and other KentuckyOne Health Louisville-area assets saved jobs and ensured high-quality care for some of the area's most vulnerable patients. But how can UofL succeed when others couldn't? And what will the acquisition mean for the community and the commonwealth? Tom Miller, CEO of UofL Health, will share his plan, which will impact Louisville's health care community for years to come.

Mr. Miller is the CEO of University of Louisville Health. He previously served as President, Chief Executive Officer, and Board member of Quorum Health, a publicly traded health care company with 38 owned hospitals and 95 managed hospitals with $2.1 billion in revenue. Mr. Miller has more than 30 years of experience in hospital operations and executive management.

January 16th Meeting Recap:

Mike Richardson, Principal with The Glenview Trust Company, used humor and his "special guest" Carnac the Magnificent, to give Rotarians their US Economic Outlook for 2020. Mark Kull, Wealth Management Advisor with Northwestern Mutual also provided his insight. The presentation focused on issues that could affect the first year of the new decade such as consumer spending, corporate investment and the unemployment rate. This was a presentation that Rotarians will not forget!
